Using Google Scholar for Research

Google Scholar allows you to search for scholarly books and articles available on the web. You can change the settings to search for Cal Poly articles at the same time. It includes some tools such as “Cite” or “Cited by” with each entry.

Here’s how to set it up:
1. Go to Google Scholar: https://scholar.google.com/
2. Click on “Settings” in the upper right-hand corner

   1) Select “Library links”
   2) Type “Cal Poly Pomona” in the search box
   3) Select “Cal Poly Pomona – Find It Cal Poly Pomona” checkbox.

Questions? Contact the Research Help Desk
- Phone: 909-869-3084
- E-mail: library@cpp.edu